Pope Francis has registered and invites those aged 18-35 to gather from all parts of the world in joyful celebration of the faith and identity we share in Jesus Christ, Saviour of the World. Reflection for the Feast of Christ the King

People sometimes say 'we live in a very dishonest world'. This is not true. There are many good, honest people. What can we do to improve society?

I would say let us each try to be good and to infect others with a goodness imbued with the meekness and love taught by Christ our Shepherd and King.

The golden rule taught by Christ our King is, 'do to others what you would want done to yourself.' On the Cross he not only forgave those who crucified him but he excused them. This is Christianity, these are sentiments which if put into practice would help society so much. Pope John Paul 1.
