Vocations Sunday

On this Sunday we pray for vocations to priesthood and religious life. While the number of priests and vocations in Ireland is decreasing the numbers worldwide are on the increase. It reminds us that here in the Republic of Ireland we should pray more fervently for vocations.

We need to encourage young men and women who have received the call, they need support and encouragement to answer that call. At present there are three students studying for priesthood in the Diocese of Meath. We pray for them as they discern their vocations. A new poster is being launched this week for Vocations, based on the Caravaggio Painting of the call of St. Matthew. Please pray for vocations to the priesthood, join in our Mass and Rosary each day for this intention during the coming week.

Prayer to St Joseph for Vocations and Families

Hail. Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

In you Mary placed her trust; With you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen
