Vocations to Priesthood and Religious Life

Jesus steps into the lives of the disciples to make them agents of God’s presence in the World. Peter is dejected because the fisherman’s work produced no catch. At the word of Christ their nets fill to breaking point. Peter had put his faith in this ‘Master’ who spoke with authority. He says ‘at your word I will let down the nets’. After the miracle he calls him ‘Lord’. This calling of the disciples tells us that the Lord asks every vocation to priesthood to fill the nets of the Church with souls who know him. He asks us to put into the deep and place our faith in him. Like Peter we do not have to be perfect but place our trust in Him. Fr. Tony Gonoude 044 – 9373923. Guidance for Churches – Covid 19

Following the government announcement on Friday 4th of January, many of the restrictions, to which we have become accustomed over the past two years, are no longer necessary. Bishop Deenihan has issued the following guidelines

The Parish Council has considered the guidelines; accordingly the following applies to our churches in Dunshaughlin and Culmullen

1. Face masks should continue to be worn at all times in churches, this will be reviewed towards the end of February.
2. Hand sanitizers will still be available at the church porches.
3. Social distancing no longer applies in churches, people are asked to give each other space.
4. While collection baskets can be used again, the Pastoral Council recommends we continue the practice of baskets at the doors for the time being
5. The sign of peace will be omitted in the short term.
6. For the present, Holy Communion will be administered on the hand. This will be reviewed by the Episcopal Conference at their next meeting.
7. Priests and Special Ministers of Holy Communion should continue to sanitise their hands before and after the distribution of Holy Communion.
8. Choirs can resume.
9. Holy Water will again be placed in the fonts at church doors.

Now is the time to welcome back parishioners who understandably were absent due to Covid 19, the sense of gathering for our Sunday Masses is important, as we are a faith community that worship together. We encourage parishioners to return to the church and actively participate in the Mass. The sacraments are integral to the Christian life. At all times we will remain vigilant in keeping people safe.
