Reflection on the Readings for Sunday

The Gospel of St Matthew directed to Jewish Christians stresses that the pagans have also come to God's mercy and are to be accepted. As Christ came to call sinners so the Church must accept them. God's thoughts of justice are beyond ours, his mercy cannot be measured. That is the point of the Gospel story today.

No one can be content with his own state of sanctity and despise or judge others. God's judgement may be quite different.
