Pentecost Sunday

The Feast of Pentecost reminds us that there is an important connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. We are reminded that the Church is called to be God's reconciling presence in the world. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians in situations of conflict.

We are to be agents of peace and harmony among all people.

'Come Holy Spirit and renew the face of the earth'

Cemetery Devotions

Our Vigil Mass today is offered for all those who have died in our Parish.

After Mass we bless the graves in St Seachnall's Cemetery and those who lie buried in the Old Church of Ireland graveyard.

A collection will be taken up for the upkeep of the Cemetery.

On Sunday after the 12 noon Mass there will be prayers and blessing of graves in Derrockstown Burial Garden. May they rest in peace

May the angels lead them into Paradise, may the martyrs come to welcome them and take them to the holy city, the new and eternal Jerusalem. 'from the Funeral Liturgy'

Students doing Exams

We continue to pray for students sitting examinations.

How Great Thou Art

Congregational Hymn for Joining In

Oh Lord, my God
When I, in awesome wonder Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made I see the stars,
I hear the rolling thunder Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Then sings my soul, my Saviour
God to Thee How great Thou art,
how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Saviour
God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great
Thou art
