Honesty in our dealings

The Gospel today focuses on our dealings with others. Christ does not approve the dishonesty of the steward but notes how attentive to profit making so many are while Christians are often apathetic about true values.

Culmullen Church

This Sunday we mark the 150th Anniversary of the laying of the foundation stone of Culmullen Church. The Bishop of Meath, Thomas Nulty, D.D, came from Mullingar and used a small silver trowel to lay the stone. The trowel is in the safe in the Church.

The Church was built over a period of three years and was dedicated for worship in 1878. Plans are going well for the restoration of the Church and repairs to its fabric.

A fitting celebration is planned to mark the dedication of the Church in 2028.

This Sunday the 10.30 Mass in Culmullen will be offered in thanksgiving for those who designed, built and participated in the building of our beautiful Church.
