Feast of Christ the King next Sunday

Forty Hours Adoration will take place in the Cathedral for all 69 Parishes in the 14 Pastoral Areas of the Diocese for the Solemnity of Christ the King.

The Forty Hours begins with Mass at 7.30 pm on Friday the 21st of November in the Cathedral. It concludes with Solemn Benediction and Homily by Bishop Mc.Guckian on Sunday 23rd November at 4pm. All are welcome.

Parishes have been assigned an hour in the Cathedral. Please note Dunshaughlin/Culmullen Parish are invited to be present for Adoration on Saturday 22nd November from 3 pm until 4 pm.

There will be confessions from noon on Sat until midnight in the Cathedral.

Everyone is warmly invited to take part in this Diocesan Pilgrimage of Prayer, praying for Vocations, for families preparing for the Sacraments, for peace in the World.

Ordination to the Priesthood

Next Saturday, the 22nd of November Rev Anthony Kerr will be ordained a priest by Bishop Deenihan, in the Cathedral Mullingar. Anthony is from Navan we pray for him and his ministry in the Diocese.

Pastoral Areas

The Bishop has issued a Pastoral Letter on the future of Parishes in the Diocese, copies available in porches and on line via www.dioceseofmeath.ie

The Bishop working with the Priests and the Parish Pastoral Councils Has Established 14 Pastoral areas across the Diocese. The hope is that parishes in these areas will work closely together.

As time goes on it may be necessary to change times of Masses or reduce the number. This decision will be taken after discussion and consultation with the Parish Pastoral Councils. Dunshaughlin/Culmullen is joined by Skryne, Ratoath, Ashbourne, Curraha and Ardcaigh. Priests and people in this area will work closely together as time goes on.

Road Traffic Victims

Today Sunday the 16th of November is World Day of Remembrance for all those who have died as a result of accidents on our roads. So far this year 147 people have lost their lives on Irish Roads. We pray for all who have died and also for those who are injured and for the bereaved.
