Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Readings today emphasise fidelity and dedication to duty and work, it is more blessed to give; talents and gifts are given for the service of the community. The Christian is to be fully dedicated to working in service of others while watching and waiting for the life to come. There is always so much good to be done for others.

First Communion Programme

We welcome children and their parents preparing for First Communion to Masses this weekend.
We pray for them that they may come to know the Lord Jesus and His love for them.

Mass for those who have died in the past year

Remembrance Mass for all those who died in our Parish over the past year will be Celebrated in St Patrick and St Seachnall's Church next Saturday 21st November at the Vigil Mass the names of the deceased will be read out and a candle will be lighted for each one.
We pray too for all the bereaved that the Lord may comfort you as you come to terms with your loss.
